Also attending: Gina Dario (Town Administrator), Bart Issacs (Attorney for Aaronson and Moss)

Absent: John Goerlach, Linda Pruyne

Meeting Called to Order: 12:05 pm

Approval of Minutes

Minutes of January 10, 2024. Mr. Sayers moved a motion to accept the minutes. Mr. Prendergast seconded the motion. All in favor.

Road Maintenance

Mr. Durfee emailed Mr. Siegars that the road had been monitored repeatedly.

Mr. Sayers and Mr. Prendergast requested Mr. Siegars email Mr. Durfee for more information about the LED lights being installed and the possibility of crack sealing at the turn off from the guardrail down through route 7 by the state.

Legal Issues

Nothing to report.

Budget Issues

Mr. Siegars will email Ms. Pruyne about the budget that needs to be completed by April. Ms. Pruyne, Mr. Prendergast and Mr. Siegars will meet to review the FY25 budget before presenting it to the Committee.

Website Update

Ms. Tool reported that the website has been quiet. The minutes are all up to date.

The Partridge Road Bridge Underpass mural is going forward. The students have done both individual and collaborative drawings. A Mass Cultural Council Grant has been awarded to the project. Mr. Siegars mentioned that Mr. Durfee will have to prepare the site of the mural to create a surface for the mural artist to work on.

Ms. Tool would like to have a plaque thanking all the contributors to the project when it is completed. Ideally, the project should be completed before the end of the school year. There will be another update at the March meeting.

Board Member Issues

None forthcoming.
